

Job Description: Instructor, Medical Laboratory Technology (Full-Time, Ongoing)
Location: Saskatoon, SK
Closing Date: July 31, 2026
Apply to: <https://careers.saskpolytech.ca/postings/62853>

Job Description:

1. Select, design, update and construct educational courses and lab aids/materials.
2. Prepare and deliver lessons, assignments, lectures and demonstrations for educational purposes in all disciplines of Medical Laboratory Science.
3. Supervise students in classroom, clinical, labs, tours, etc. It may involve travel.
4. Evaluate students through the use of exams, assignments and observations and to record student progress.
5. Counsel students and prospective students on matters pertaining to the program and job opportunities.

Qualifications:

1. Degree or Diploma in Medical Laboratory Technology with current or eligible to register with CMLPSK and CAMLPR.
2. Minimum of two years of recent, relevant experience as a Medical Laboratory Technologist (MLT) or in a related field in a Canadian laboratory, including clinical laboratory.
3. Ability to effectively engage students in learning complex topics through lectures, labs, one-on-one support, and constructive feedback.
4. Strong leadership, organization, and communication skills.
5. Effective interpersonal and problem-solving skills.
6. Commitment to excellence in teaching, collaboration, and inclusive education.
7. Ability to function as a team member in an ever-changing environment.
8. Demonstrated competence and recent experience in MS Office Suite, educational software, and the ability to learn and adapt to changing technology.
9. Demonstrates valuing diversity.